Undergraduate students at Fordham University are invited to apply for Summer School at the University of Pretoria for the period of 27 July – 14 August 2015.

Two modules are offered, one in Church History and one in Practical Theology. Each module carries 7 South African academic credits¹ (the equivalent of 1.5 academic credits at Fordham).

Applicants are responsible for airfare and accommodation (accommodation will be approximately $51 per night per person sharing and is inclusive of dinner, bed and breakfast). Applicants are also responsible for the levy and international registration ($450) and transport costs of various site visits ($100). The logistical aspects in South Africa will be dealt with by the Faculty of Theology.

Applications:

Applicants are requested to download the 2015 PDF application form by clicking on the link: international students, and submitting a hard copy application form to the office of Prof Hornbeck on or before 28 February 2015. Students must complete Fordham's application to study abroad which can be found online.
